

Al Salam Bank Hosts AUBH Students in a Specialized Training Program to Enhance Financial Awareness

Manama, Bahrain – 26 December 2024: As part of its commitment to fostering financial awareness and supporting youth, Al Salam Bank recently hosted a delegation of students from the American University of Bahrain (AUBH) to explore practical experiences in converting conventional banking products into Shari'a-compliant solutions.

The program welcomed more than 15 students who participated in diverse sessions led by senior representatives from various departments, including Shari'a Compliance, Legal Affairs, Business Development, and Treasury. The visit also featured a guided tour of the trading floor to observe the bank's daily operations.

Commenting on the visit, Ms. Muna Albalooshi, Head of Human Resources and Administration at Al Salam Bank, said: "We are proud to support AUBH's efforts to empower youth and enrich their knowledge. At Al Salam Bank, we believe that investing in young talent is an investment in the future, and we are always eager to strengthen partnerships with academic institutions to contribute to the development of national competencies. Al Salam Bank's experience in converting conventional banking products into Shari'a-compliant solutions serves as a model, and we are committed to sharing this expertise with future generations as part of our social responsibility to foster community development."

Through this initiative, Al Salam Bank reaffirms its pioneering role in delivering innovative and comprehensive banking solutions that cater to the aspirations of youth and support the growth of Bahrain's banking sector.
